

Privacy Policy

Patient privacy: Lymphoma Foundation of America follows the same privacy policy as hospitals and physicians: all personal and medical information provided to our charity by patients or family members is strictly confidential and cannot be disclosed to anyone or any entity, except with permission of the patient. We comply with HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act).

Donor Privacy: It is the strict policy of the Lymphoma Foundation of America never to disclose, trade, rent, lease, or market in any way the names of our donors and contributors. Individual privacy is respected and is automatic. You do not have to request privacy.

Lymphoma Foundation of America will, with your permission and request, acknowledge your donation to a third party or parties of your choice (e.g., memorial contributions, remission celebrations, end-of-treatment congratulations, survivor parties, bike-a-thon, etc.).
